FRANKFORT, (KEN.)

GERARD & BERRY—PRINTERS TO THE STATE.

FEBRUARY 26TH, 1813.

Governor to accept of the services of any volunteer company or companies (not exceeding three thousand as aforesaid) who shall tender their services within such time, and for such term, not exceeding six months, as the Governor in his discretion, shall proclaim and appoint. And the Governor shall designate and commission for that purpose, all officers necessary and proper for the command of such volunteers.

Volunteers to receive money in advance

Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, That all volunteer officers, non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates, whose service may be tendered and accepted under the provisions of this act, shall, at such place or places of rendezvous as the Governor shall appoint within this state, be entitled to receive in advance, the sum of ten dollars, to be taken and considered as a part of their pay.

Forces when raised how to be disposed of

Sec. 4. Be it further enacted, That the forces to be raised and organized, as provided by this act, shall be disposed of according to the discretion of their Governor (that discretion subject only to the requisitions of the general government) and shall be liable to be marched to any place, and engaged in the service of the U. States, as the exigencies of the present war may, in the opinion of the executive, require.

The Governor authorized to draw money from the treasury or borrow from banks

Sec. 5. Be it further enacted, That the governor of this commonwealth, for the purpose of carrying into effect the third section of this act, shall be authorized to draw from the Treasury of this state, any sums of money that may be necessary therefor; or in case of deficiency in the public funds, to borrow from any Bank or individuals, upon the best terms he can obtain such additional sums as may be necessary for the purpose aforesaid.

Sec. 6. Be it further enacted, That the powers vested in the Governor by the first and second sections of this act, shall be exercised and carried into effect by him to such extent, and in such a manner and time, as his own discretion and the emergency of public affairs may dictate.

CHAP. LXXXIX.

Approved, February 3, 1813.

Sec. 1. BE it enacted by the general assembly of the commonwealth of Kentucky, That any person in this commonwealth, who shall hereafter wear a pocket pistol, dirk, large knife, or sword in a cane, concealed as a weapon, unless when travelling on a journey, shall be fined in any sum, not less than one hundred dollars; which may be recovered in any court having jurisdiction of like sums, by action of debt, or on the presentment of a grand jury—and a prosecutor in such presentment shall not be necessary. One half of such fine shall be to the use of the informer, and the other to the use of this commonwealth.

This act shall commence and be in force, from and after the first day of June.

CHAP. XC.

AN ACT to amend the Militia Law.

Approved February 3, 1813.

Sec. 1. BE it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That if any non-commissioned officer, musician or private, failing to march, or furnishing an able bodied substitute in his place, when ordered and lawfully called on, or leaving the service without a discharge from the proper officer, shall be considered as a deserter, & treated as followeth, to wit: Any person may apprehend such deserter, and deliver him to the officer commanding such detachment, or any recruiting officer within this commonwealth, and take his receipt for the same; which receipt shall describe the name of such deserter, and the length of time he was to serve, and by whom he was delivered—which receipt shall be assignable; and the reward for taking and so delivering such deserter, as aforesaid, shall be a credit for a tour or tours of duty for the length of time such deserter was bound to serve; and said deserter shall serve out the term of time aforesaid before he shall be discharged, in addition to the time he was to serve, if such term of time is then required; otherwise shall serve said tour or tours, when required so to do. And any person holding such receipt, when he is called on to perform a tour or tours of duty, and producing the same to the captain calling on him, it shall be the duty of said captain to receive the same, and give the owner thereof a credit for as many tours as is therein contained.
